PRESCHOOL ~ ELEMENTARY, PREPARED FOR LIFE

A Living Montessori Community

Mid Winter Break Camp

February 21st to February 24th

Camp Zones

Music/Drama: Children will explore Eurythmics and dance according to set rhythms. This encourages a grounded sense of grace and sets the stage for formal music lessons. Understanding the fundamentals of musicianship, students will play instruments, recognize different tones, discover soft and loud dynamics and respond to conductor cues.

Creative Arts: In the Arts & Crafts Zone, students will explore 3D art using recycled materials. Art projects will include a study of George Washington and Abraham Lincoln. Students will create presidential collages, star cookie cutter prints, trace silhouettes, create a pretzel log cabin and sing fun songs about presidents! To honor Valentines Day children will enjoy a variety of heart-themed art works.

Culinary: Children will discover Carnival, Citrus, Muffin Making, and Healthy Kid Snacks such as: Totem Poles and Banana Dogs. They'll develop skills to make beignets and masks under a "Carnival" theme. Kids will learn how to make citrus juice, write and create salad recipes and make breakfast and savory muffins.

Sports & Games: Children will develop fine and gross motor skills, strength, flexibility, leadership, focus and sportsmanship through Relay Races, Volleyball, Badminton, Soccer, Team Building activities and Board Games galore!
